Smart-UK have been teaching the science and practice auricular acupuncture for substance misuse and mental health for nearly twenty five years, and have taught thirteen thousand health care workers. We are the training providers of choice to the. NHS, HMPS, armed forces, community mental health, addiction services, family support organisations and charities .

Our book “Auricular Acupuncture and Addiction” is a world’s first in scientific explanation in this field. Sue and Kim’s - “no hocus pocus” approach in their practice and teaching provides a real understanding of the brain and it’s magic! and how things get mis-interpreted! We have been constantly asked to make this particular day more available, So here it is!

“” I wish everyone would do this training!,”

“Taught with such passion and knowledge!”

“I didn’t know what to expect but this was brilliant!”

“Pragmatic, up-to-date, and invaluable to anyone working within the mental health field”

“I can honestly say this has been the best training i have ever done!””

“thankyou so much this was amazing!”

“I have never enjoyed any teaching so much EVER!!”

“This was not only an informative day but it was such fun!”
